

Dear 3° ,

Je vous sais très occupés à réviser le Brevet Blanc pour lundi mais je vous demande néanmoins de bien vouloir avancer dans votre travail d'anglais.

Je vous joins les documents. Je vous demande de bien vouloir finir l'exercice de vocabulaire, revoir votre fiche de grammaire (Present perfect vs simple past) distribués la semaine dernière

Il nous reste 3h avant les vacances, voici le programme: 1h consacrée à la correction des exos, 1h pour faire les évaluations, 1h pour corriger les évaluations.

Miss Harel

Practise your grammar!

Job advertisement

What can you say about these jobs ?

Job market / looking for

 A New York dog walker	 A babysitter	 a salesperson
---	--	---

Some applicant talk about their skills to convince their employers.
Match the expressions with the corresponding job.

Look after my younger brothers and sisters - do a training period at Macy's - be an assistant in a crèche - help at the ASPCA - work in a pet shop - learn to tell children stories - take cookery lessons - look after the neighbours' dogs.

Make sentences with the following example :
I have already worked in a shop.

Practise your grammar!
Talking about one's experience

This applicant wants a job as disc jockey.
Complete his letter, putting the verb in the right place, using the present perfect.
organize - be - approve - give - work - be

I already in a jazz club in New Orleans. I always interested in all sorts of music. I also dancing lessons. I often private receptions. All my bosses satisfied with my performances. My current employer of my choice to change jobs as this is a unique opportunity for me to work in New-York.