

The risks and dangers of cricket.

The main purpose of the equipment is to protect yourself from the ball.

The danger of the ball.

If you take the ball in the head it can hurt you a lot. It is made of hard cork covered with leather. To protect himself, the player wears a helmet.

A cricket ball

If the ball goes fast and it is shot at a bone, it can be broken

The damage can be frightful and devastating !

players protect their genitals part with a box.

Questions about the risks of cricket

What material is the ball made of ?

- A. Paper
- B. Stone
- C. Hard cork

What do players use to protect their heads ?

- A. A cap
- B. A helmet
- C. A beanie